is pleased to announce the Inaugural

TEXAS

Maternal Mental Health and Wellness Conference

COMMONS LEARNING CENTER • J.J. PICKLE RESEARCH CAMPUS, UT AUSTIN • April 27 – 29, 2017

This conference will offer a multi-disciplinary learning opportunity for professionals who provide services to women and their families during pregnancy and after childbirth. The conference seeks to enhance learning and communications among mental health and community-based providers, birthing professionals, nurses and physicians. This event will include learning and self-care opportunities for parents and interested community members.

FRIDAY KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Lucy J. Puryear, MD, associate professor of Obstetrics and Gynecology and the Menninger Department of Psychiatry, is board certified in psychiatry. Dr. Puryear holds the Maureen Hackett Endowed Chair for Reproductive Psychiatry. She serves as the Medical Director of The Women's Place: Center for Reproductive Psychiatry and the co-director of The Menopause Center at Texas Children’s Pavilion for Women. She is known nationally for her participation in the Andrea Yates trial and retrial, and has made numerous appearances in the national media speaking about women's mental health issues. Dr. Puryear is the author of the book Understanding Your Emotions When You're Expecting: Emotions, Mental Health, and Happiness - Before, During, and After Pregnancy, published by Houghton Mifflin. Dr. Puryear has been recognized by Texas Monthly as a "Super Doc" as well as being named to "Best Doctors in America".

SATURDAY KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Jill Krause, Dallas, TX

Views from BabyRabies.com

Krause started a blog in 2007 when her baby fever got serious and became baby rabies. She experienced postpartum anxiety after the birth of each of her children, and has leveraged her platform to spread awareness of perinatal mood and anxiety disorders. Krause has been recognized by Time, Vogue, Buzzfeed, and Babble for her authentic voice and online influence, and was awarded Personal Blog Of The Year by the Iris Awards in 2016.

Anne Dunnewold, PhD, Dallas, TX

On NOT Living a Pinterest Life: Parenting with Mindful Self-compassion

Dunnewold is a licensed psychologist, mom and author. She has more than 25 years of experience helping clients cope with life issues. Her most recent solo title is Even June Cleaver Would Forget the Juice Box, which introduces the new paradigm of the perfectly good mother, as opposed to those who overproduce, overprotect and overperfect.
CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT

Conference Learning Objectives:
By the end of the activity, participants will be able to:
• Recognize symptoms and provide screening for perinatal mood disorders
• Diagnose perinatal mood disorders
• Develop appropriate plans of care or referrals for women with PMDs
• Describe effective systems of community referrals for PMDs

General Conference Audience: Social workers, physicians, nurses, professional counselors and psychologists, doula, lactation specialists, community health workers, and other women’s health and mental health practitioners are all invited to attend this exciting educational opportunity.

Saturday Community Day: Parents and interested community members are invited to attend on Saturday, April 29th for keynotes, program sessions, luncheon, and a community resource fair. Special rate is available.

Social Work, LPC, LMFT: The keynote and workshop sessions of this conference have been approved for 14 CEUs for Social Workers, Marriage and Family Therapists, and Licensed Professional Counselors by The University of Texas at Austin School of Social Work.

CME: This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and Policies of the Texas Medical Association (TMA) through the joint providership of Seton Healthcare Family and University of Texas at Austin School of Social Work.

The Seton Healthcare Family is accredited by the Texas Medical Association to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Seton Healthcare Family designates this live activity for a maximum of 10 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

CNE: Seton Healthcare Family is an approved provider of continuing nursing education by the Texas Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center’s Commission on Accreditation. This educational activity will provide 10 contact hours upon successful completion of sessions. This CNE activity is jointly provided by Seton Healthcare Family collaboratively with The University of Texas at Austin School of Social Work.

Presentations highlighted in CHART BLOCKS are approved for CME and CNE credit.

<td>Babies don’t come with instruction manuals, yet there’s no end to the barrage of information, inspiration, and direction about living life as a parent. Try it out, sort it out, tune it out—still teensy bits of guilt, anxiety and stress seep in with every peek at Pinterest. There’s no single right way to raise happy, healthy, children; rather there are 54 million ways that seem to evolve with each new blog or news story. Parents can surf competently and compassionately through these most priceless yet challenging years, sanity intact, with concrete tools learned in this fun, reassuring presentation.</td>
