Bachelor of Social Work

WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE? EXPLORE SOCIAL WORK.

AS A SOCIAL WORKER, YOU WILL HELP PEOPLE

overcome some of life's toughest challenges by addressing both their personal struggles and the situations they're living in.

In the Bachelor of Social Work program, you'll get direct experience during an internship that lasts a whole semester. You'll learn through real-world practice, preparing you to become a licensed social worker.

You'll be qualified to work in places like schools, hospitals, family service centers, and organizations that advocate for groups facing hardship.

You'll explore topics like:

- How family, community, and systems influence life outcomes
- The latest research on the most effective social work methods
- Support services and programs
- Conditions that help people thrive
- How leaders and groups make change happen

You'll become skilled in:

- Assessing needs and strengths of individuals, families, and communities
- Connecting clients with services
- Championing community priorities
- Partnering with professionals in other fields to solve problems
- Taking on leadership roles
- Bringing your creativity to make an impact

STUDENT TESTIMONIALS

"The opportunities and community have been unmatched. I have learned about topics I am interested in on a deeper level from professors who not only care about the subject but also their students."

Andrés — BSW and Plan II Honors student

"I feel deeply connected to my peers and to the work we do here and around Austin. I have never doubted my place in the broader social work community thanks to the support I've received here."

Sarah — BSW student

"Pursuing my BSW at the School of Social Work is one of my proudest accomplishments. The coursework is directly correlated to the work you'll do in the field."

Skylar — BSW graduate
