Philanthropy Education Program

Program Description: The Philanthropy Education Program (PEP) is a yearlong program for current social work students. The program focuses on educating and training students on the basics of development such as fundraising, donor cultivation, event planning, and stewardship.

Expectations and Details:
- Time commitment: estimated 15-20 hours per semester
- We will be accepting 10 students for the 2018-2019 school year. See application link on the website.
  - $500 stipend upon successful program completion (see below)
- Program requirements includes:
  - Attend Dev 101 Workshop
  - Attend both additional workshops/panels for the year
    - I.e. Grants Workshop, Development Director Panel
  - Participate in Thanks Day and 40 for 40
    - Thank you letter workshop
    - Tabling
  - Volunteer at the Texas Social and at one development event in the fall
  - Take lead on one PEP activity
    - Ex: Recruiting, Thanks Day, 40 for 40, class giving, events
- Development Office Graduate Assistant will keep track of your attendance.